IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

No police arrests yesterday.

See campaign lyric on fourth page entitled "Greeley."

The street in front of Metropolitan Hall is now lighted with gas.

Cuthbert, the New York Herald correspondent, has returned to the city.

Every mail brings to us reports of election frauds from every section of the State.

See the advertisement of the opening of the Wesleyan Female College at Murfreesboro'.

Over 100 negroes from Virginia are reported as having voted at the Townsville (Granville Co.) box.

The fraud in Craven county is clear enough to throw out the entire vote before any jury, so it is said.

The colored population of this vicinity have discovered the first "cullud pusson" spoken of by the bible; he was Joseph Scoat of "many colors."

A letter to Capt. S. T. Williams, of Saturday's date, from one of the most prominent citizens of Eastern Carolina, concludes:

"So far as my knowledge goes, the people demand an investigation of these frauds. I believe, the people believe that Merrimon is honestly elected."

Card caricatures of the City Editor of this paper in the act of embracing the colored man Cross after the conviction of the negro Radical Ku Klux by the U. S Commissioner, are peddled on the streets at ten cents each. We can only say to the cowardly author of the said caricature, that having borne the brunt of an attempted assination, divers and sundry threats of a public caning, &c., this last act of intimidation falls far short of its purpose.

OUR CHURCHES TO-DAY.—Divine services will be held at the following Churches to-day, (Sunday.) Strangers and others in the city are earnestly and cordially invited to attend. Gentlemanly ushers will be present to conduct visitors to pews which are always free.

A GRAND DEMONSTRATION ON FRIDAY EVENING NEXT!

TORCH LIGHT PROCESSION AND FIRE WORKS!

A Grand Jollification!

COME ONE! COME ALL!

The Celebration by the Greeley and Brown Club!

Our National Success—The Election of our General Assembly—The Election of our Congressmen—The Overthrow of John Pool and the gain of a U. S. Senator, glory enough for one day!

At a meeting of the Committee of Arrangements, held in the insurance office of Douglas Bell, Esq., Saturday evening, the Canvassing Committee appointed to collect funds for the proposed Celebration reported a sufficient sum on hand for the purpose, and Friday evening next was appointed as the most appropriate time for the demonstration.

The Committee of Arrangements are at work and will doubtless make this one of the grandest affairs ever known in the city of Raleigh. It is expected that the various railroads centreing in the city, will run special trains on the occasion that our country friends, even a hundred miles distant may unite with us in our rejoicing on the occasion. Let every one come that can, and participate in the universal joy that we all feel in the great National success achieved by the sons of the Old North State. If special trains can be secured, and they can be by early application, we would be glad to see our neighboring towns appear in a body with their own torches and transparences. Should any such organization be perfected in any of the neighboring towns, they will communicate at once with E. C. Woodson, Chairman Committee of Arrangements, that the necessary preparations may be made for their reception at the depot. Come one, come all, and let us unite in one general shout of rejoicing.

VINDICATION OF THE IRISH PRIESTHOOD.—The following Communication was sent us yesterday by the Rev. Father McNamara, the pious Shepherd of the Catholic flock of this city. The reverend Father is very right in saying "I am convinced that the managers of the NEWS are desirous of doing what is fair in such cases." The NEWS, so far from being sectarian in its principles, labors for the general good of all christian denominations and will not knowingly publish any article that would in the slightest degree reflect upon or impair the usefulness of any church.

The article referred to appeared in common with the other midnight press dispatches and but little notice was taken of the subject matter.

The vindication of the clergy by Father McNamara through the columns of the NEWS will not only be an act of justice to the large number of our Catholic readers, but from this learned gentleman's pen be a matter of interest to all. We therefore take pleasure in informihg Father McNamara that our columns await his pleasure for the desired purpose:

To the Editors of the Daily News.

GENTLEMEN:—As a Roman Catholic Priest, and as Pastor of the congregation of Raleigh, I feel obliged to give the public some information relative to the subject-matter of a telegram printed in the NEWS of the 6th inst. The item in question runs thus:

"The English government will prosecute 22 persons for interference in elections, including a Roman Catohlic Bishop, ——— and nineteen Roman Catholic Priests." In the midst of a public not wholly unprejudiced, and who are indeed sadly uninformed regarding Catholic topics, items of this nature thrown in without note or comment, are calculated to leave behind them very erroneous and very injurious impressions. I am convinced the managers of the NEWS are desirous of doing what is fair in such cases; and I am not too sorry this little telegram found its way into their columns. But printed thus without any account of the circumstances bearing on the point, it peremptorially calls for an article at my hands, or at the hands of somebody conversant with the facts which have given rise to this so-heralded "Prosecution for interference in elections."

Have the kindness to inform my friends what day you can publish an article from me on this matter, and I will feel pleasure in convincing you and your readers that so far from the noble Irish clergy having done anything wrong in the late Galway elections, they have endeared themselves to the down-trodden Irish nation, and have exhibited themselves as the defenders of popular rights against the injustice and tyranny so long practiced by the base and detestable governmement of Britain. Yours truly,

FATHER MCNAMARA.

SELF MADE MEN.—Among the self made men of the present day whose names adorn the pages of our political State and country's history, there is none more prominent than that of our young friend Charles Price Esq., the Senator elect from Rowan and Davie county.

He was born in Warrenton N. C., of poor but highly respectable parentage, and educated at the Warrenton Male Academy under Capt. Jno. E. Dugger. He entered the army in the junior reserve corpse in 1864, at the age of eighteen years and was commissioned a captain of Infantry by Gov. Vance. At the battle of Bentonsville, the young captain with his company of boys held the Confederate skirmish line against an overwhelming force of the enemy for more than six hours, and was publicly complimented on the field of battle for his gallant conduct. After the war he resumed his academic course at Chapel Hill, graduated with marked distinction. As a means of advancing his education he came to this city and accepted a clerkship in the Yarborough House, of which Maj. J. M. Blair was then proprietor.

By strict economy, he soon saved enough to enable him to continue his studies at Judge Pearson's law school, Richmond Hill, Yadkin county. He was granted license to practice law by the Supreme Court at its Spring term of 1868, and located in Warrenton. He only remained in Warrenton a few months, when he removed to Mocksville, Davie county, where he at once entered upon his profession, receiving a lucrative patronage. In 1871 he was united in marriage to Miss Hobson, of Davie county, a member of the distinguished Morehead family of Western Carolina.

Mr. Price is quite a young man, but but from our personal knowledge of his sterling abilities, we can safely predict for him a position in the North Carolina Senate, second to no other member of this learned body.

CORRECTION.—Below we publish the statement of an esteemed correspondent at Louisburg, giving the facts in regard to the late tragedy in Franklin county. As stated in our article we only gave the rumor as we received it and we are glad to make the necessary correction:

LOUISBURG, N. C., August 10, 1872.

Editor News:—In your paper of the 8th inst., I find the following:

"ANOTHER OUTRAGE.—It is currently reported and believed in this city that a colored man was murdered at the polls in Franklin, for exercising the privilege to vote in the late election as he wished.

The outrage is said to have been committed at Clifton Mills, by a negro named Tom Spivey; that the victim, Hal Young, was killed before leaving the polls, and the murderer is now in Louisburg jail."

Your informant was wholly mistaken, both as to the time and facts of the occurrence, as well as the name of one of the parties.

On Saturday morning last Tom Spivey and Hal Harris were loading a cart with hay for John T. Clifton, of this county when a dispute arose between them, about the reloading of some hay that had fallen off the cart, from which a rencounter ensued, in which Spivey struck Harris with a pitchfork behind the left ear, from which he died almost instantly. These are the facts as elicited both by the Coroner's inquest and the preliminary examination before the Magistrate.

Please make the necessary correction in your paper. I know it is not your desire or intention to misrepresent facts.

Very truly,
W. H. SPENCER.

EXECUTION AT CHARLOTTE.—Newton V. Chandler, (white,) aged twenty-five, well-built and rather good looking, was executed yesterday in the jail yard at Charlotte, at 15 minutes past one o'clock, for the crime of rape, committed on the night of the 1st of April, 1871, on the person of a Miss Bradshaw, (white,) in Lincoln county. Before he was brought to the gallows Chandler professed to have repented of his crimes, a long list of which he confessed to have perpetrated prior to the one for which he died, and he firmly and sincerely believed he had made his peace with God. When he stepped upon the drop he was perfectly cool and collected, and he exclaimed at the highest pitch of his voice, "Oh! Death, where is thy sting? Oh! Grave, where is thy victory? Oh! Hell, where are thy terrors?" These were the last words he ever uttered. A black mask was then tied over his face, which partially obscured his features, the halter already around his neck was made fast over the the cross-beam of the gallows, the knot was adjusted in its proper place, and at the time above stated his body fell suddenly three feet with a terrible jerk, and dangled from the structure of Death. There was only one convulsive movement of the whole frame. In thirteen minutes life was extinct and his body was cut down.

CITY TAXES.—Owing to the numerous complaints in regard to city taxes from every ward in the city, a special meeting of the Board of City Commissioners has been called for Monday night.

RALEIGH, N. C., March, 1872

Mr. Stillman, Agent of "The Howe Sewing Machine":

We have had your Machine in use in our family for four months, and can safely recommend it to the public for its simplicity, beauty as a piece of furniture, and as a "help" to those of us with large families, it is a "sine qua non." We have made with it, in addition to the usual household work, over one hundred garments, large and small, including Pants, Coats, Dresses, &c., some of which were heavily trimmed, two of the dresses containing from 100 to 125 yards of tucking. It is worked with much ease, requiring but little exertion. We would not be without one for three times its cost. Yours &c.,

The London Times' Madrid correspondent describes the attempt to assassinate the King and Queen of Spain. The morning of July 18 had been fixed for the King's departure for the scene of the Carlists' disturbances, and their majesties had arranged to attend an open air concert in the beautiful gardens of the Bueno Retiro. On the evening of the 18th the King and Queen started for the gardens. At midnight the streets were densely crowded, for all Madrid keeps in doors by day and is out by night in hot weather. A little before 12 o'clock some fourteen or sixteen ill-looking fellows were seen to emerge from a tavern in the Plaza Marcondo and proceed to the Calle Arenal where they divided themselves into groups of three or four, and stationed themselves at various points on both sides of the street. Some stood at the end nearest the Plaza Orient, others at the the corner of the Plaza De Prim, the Calle De Helleras and the Costumello De Los Angeles. One man, it is said, stood in the doorway of the Church of San Gares, while another placed himself as a sort of sentinel at the point where the Calle Arenal opens into the Puerta Del Sol. The various knots of police approached these men, but almost at the same moment the royal carriage with its red liveried coachman and lackey, drove rapidly from the Retire the Calle Alcala, the Puerto Del Sol and Calla Arenal. As the carriage passed the minister of finance, it was met by that of the civil governor, Senor Mata and his secretary, Senor Castillanos, who were on their way to the Retiro. After taking their last dispositions with the view of escorting their Majesties from the gardens, as soon as they saw the Royal carriages, they returned theirs round and followed it. On passing the Cafe de Levante, close to Calle de Hilaros, shots were rapidly fired from both sides of the Calle Arenal once. Quick as lightning General Burgos, who is a very tall and powerful man, rose and leant over the King and Queen, who sat opposite to him, so as to protect them completely. The King stood erect in token that he was unhurt. At the same moment more shots were fired from other parts of the street, some by the assassins and the rest by the armed police. In fact a species of battle seems to have been going on all down the Calle Arenal as the royal carriage, freed from the obstructions of an empty cab which was placed there—some say designedly—drove rapidly towards the palace. In entering the court yard one of the two noble horses which drew it fell dead, having received a ball in the chest. In the struggle between the police and the assassins, one of the latter was shot dead, and another severely wounded. Three men were captured, one of whom appears to be the keeper of the tavern in Plazar Major already referred to. The body of the one shot was conveyed to the general hospital. He seems to be a man of some 45 to 50 years of age, but he has not been recognized as yet. The moment the royal pair reached the palace the Queen retired to her apartments, showing a calmness and serenity unusual to her sex on such a trying occasion. She exclaimed to General Rossells, "Thanks to God, we are here;" and to another, who expressed horror that such things should be done in heraldic Spain, she coolly replied, "Assassins are to be found in all countries." The King remained to a late hour recounting the details of the event, and receiving the congratulations of the thousands who flocked to the palace. The Civil Governor and his secretary, who jumped out of their carriage at the first shot, rushed unaided on the assassins, and aided materially in the capture of the three who were taken.

IRREVERENCE.

"THERE MAY BE SOME DEMOCRATS PRESENT WHO ARE REPENTANT AND I LIKE TO PREACH TO SINNERS. YOU HAVE HEARD OF THE FELLOW WHO SAID, 'I CAME NOT TO CALL THE RIGHTEOUS, BUT SINNERS, TO REPENTANCE.'"—Delano in his speech at Raleigh.

COOL.

The Wilmington Post has an article entitled "Frauds," in which the Democrats are brought to task for charging that frauds were committed in the last election, and it endeavors to fasten the charge upon the Democrats, charging them, also, with intimidation.

Such audacity is indeed refreshing and comes with a bad grace from a journal which advocates the doctrines of the Republican party.

Now, let us see who was guilty of fraud, according to statistics of the election. Bladen county cast forty-six more votes than her voting strength, Cumberland three hundred and twenty-one, Duplin five hundred and twenty-six, Swain one hundred and eighty-three, Franklin two hundred and sixty-five, Halifax eight hundred and fifty-two, Nash four hundred and ninety-six, accounted for in part by the annexation of a portion of Edgecombe county, Northampton one hundred and eighty-four, Robeson one hundred and seventy-one, Sampson one hundred and forty-five.

In the face of these figures, Radicals charge fraud on the Democracy. No, they cannot believe what they say, the evidences of fraud against the Republican party are too apparent, and it is for this reason that we desire a thorough, close investigation into the conduct of the last campaign. The people should know how a corrupt party has tampered with the election, and has disregarded their wishes.

IS THIS A FREE COUNTRY?

We hear a great deal of talk among Republicans of the freedom which exists among all classes in America, they would make people believe that the very air they breathe, under their rule, has become laden with the very essence of freedom.

The Republican party professes to accord equal rights to all, and its members become very active in punishing a supposed violation of the enforcement act when Democrats are the objects of their vengeance. But how slow they are to award a just punishment to those colored men of their own party who attempt by threats and intimidation to deter the Liberals of their own color from exercising the right of voting for whom they choose.

In Alabama, colored men have been terribly maltreated on account of their preference for the Greeley movement, and in our own State it has been practiced.

The ballot is free to all, and no man has a right to attempt to prevent his neighbors from exercising his right.

Wherever any one does this, the officers of the United States should bring the offenders to punishment.

WORDS OF CHEER.

Our friends in other States speak of the North Carolina election in terms which show that they look upon it as in fact a victory for the Conservatives. Although the result is not as we would have had it, yet in spite of this, we have cause for rejoicing. Democrats and Liberals throughout the country do not characterize the result of our contest as a defeat, but are gratified that such good results have been accomplished.

Thus, it will be seen that as far as the returns have been received, we have a good working majority and the certainty of a United States Senator in place of John Pool.

When the full returns are in, our majority will be increased.

A VIEW OF THE ELECTION IN THIS STATE.

The Washington Patriot has the following in regard to the North Carolina election, which will prove of interest, as expressing the views of the press outside of the State.

There is nothing in the news from North Carolina to induce us to abate our joy over the victory, which the Conservatives have achieved over the combined forces of the Administration, with all the appliances of money, imported votes, fraudulent registry, terrorism, and corrupt collusion, which were employed in the most unscrupulous manner to affect the results. No political contest was never more unequal in all its phases—none in which the vast material power of this great government was so openly and shamefully concentrated to affect a local election. The spectacle presented of Federal interference in the most conspicuous form, and the prodigal use of the people's money, abstracted from the Treasury under false pretences, is not only a practical commentary on all the canting professions about civil service reform, but it is an alarming fact of the gravest significance.

The Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of the Interior, Commissioner of Pensions, Auditors of the Treasury, postmasters, Custom-house officers, supervisors and assessors of internal revenue, mail agents, Treasury detectives, secret service spies, United States marshals and untold deputies, formed the household troops of the President, which were scattered all over the State by a preconcerted plan, with an unlimited supply of greenbacks to operate upon the venal and ignorant. The negroes were drilled like a machine in leagues directed by chosen emissaries, and it is estimated that five thousand were fraudulently introduced from Virginia, Tennessee and South Carolina, besides a large quota furnished by our enterprising Board of Public Works.

Superadded to these agencies, several thousand indictments were found by partisan juries in the so-called Ku Klux counties for pretended offences, and in others for alleged illicit distilling, which were held over the heads of these poor people, with promises of release and favor, upon condition that they voted the Administration ticket. The returns from that portion of the State bear witness to the effect of these infamous proceedings, and of the large scale upon which they were conducted, through an organized system of intimidation by Federal office-holders. The judiciary was thus prostituted to the vilest purposes of party and by barefaced connivance with fraud.

* * * * * * *

If we have been counted out of the State ticket, as Colonel McClure was in Philadelphia, by the sharp practice of adepts in that species of Radical roguery, detailed to see it done according to the system practiced elsewhere, there ought to be an overhauling of the records and of the knaves who engaged in that business. Certain is it, that office-holders have willfully defied, violated and outraged the provisions of their own enforcement act, for which every one of them should be held to account. Never before have they so daringly deserted official duty, and enlisted as partisans, striving to prolong their own tenure of place, as was witnessed at this recent election. Public business at the Treasury and Interior Departments, as well as in many of the bureaux, was practically suspended by the absence of the Secretaries and others, to take part in, and give personal direction to, the canvass. The mercenaries of Louis Napoleon at least preserved the external forms of respect for public opinion. Those of Grant scornfully cast propriety aside and headed by two members of the Cabinet, set an example which cannot be too sternly rebuked.

Relieved of this Federal pressure, no man doubts that North Carolina would at least have given a clear majority of of 10,000 for Merrimon. In November next, when the same influences cannot be exerted, and the State will be comparatively free from external forces, there is nothing more certain than that Greeley will carry it, by such a vote as will astound the conspirators, who have now defrauded our candidate out of his rights.

JUDGE BLACK'S LETTER.

Judge Black, of Pennsylvania, has recently written an able letter to the Baltimore Gazette, in which he reviews the political situation and draws the parallel between Greeley and Grant.

He is severe on the acts of the present Administration, and characterizes the leading measures of President Grant as "not only unconstitutional, but anti-constitutional."

Coming from a source for which all men have respect, this letter will have a fine influence on those who still stand aloof and have not yet joined in the Greely movement.

THE WEST.

The Western papers are full of news of the great popular upheaval which is in progress in that portion of the country in favor of the Reform movement. In Iowa, Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois, the fires are burning brightly and we may expect good reports from that section.

ENGLISH HARVEST PROSPECTS.—The latest advices from England represent that the crops there were in a condition to warrant definite conclusions as to the result. Wheat will not exceed the average as regards quantity, while in quality the yield will be inferior. The harvast, also, will be very late this year, a circumstance which usually prevents it from being secured in a good, dry condition. The present indications are that England will next year be compelled to increase last year's heavy purchases of breadstuffs, and that large supplies will be required from foreign countries. The United States, therefore, will find a good market for its surpulus breadstuffs.

A SHORT COURTSHIP AT LONG BRANCH.—At the grand ball in the Mansion House at Long Branch on Saturday evening, Mr. J. D. Banghart, of the New Jersey bar, was introduced by landlord Burroughs to a Mrs. Marsh, a wealthy widow. Mr. Banghart became infatuated, and upon meeting her the following morning in the surf, proposed marriage. He was accepted, and the marriage was solemnized in the "Sea Side Chapel" the same morning. A correspondent says the widow is reported to be worth $200,00.

A cross-roads postmaster in Louisiana, whose official emoluments amount to the magificent sum of $10 a year, had a dispute with some official of the Post Office Department, and in consequence indignantly resigned. Well done! say we. Who could be "loyal" on $10 a year?

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A PERILOUS SEASON.—Glorious and delightful as the Summer weather is, its tropical heat is a severe trial to the vital powers. Even the strongest are sometimes prostrated by its effect. The common phrase applied to this condition of the body is "general debility." Now, general debility arises from, and includes a variety of ailments. The liver is more or less affected, the bowels are either constipated or too much relaxed, the stomach but half performs the work of digestion, the appetite is poor, and the spirits depressed. This is what is called general debility. It is a general disarrangement of all the physical functions, and requires as a remedy a medicine that will regulate them all. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is specially adapted to this purpose. Its general operation is not confined to a single organ. If the liver is affected, it restores its tone; if the stomach is torpid, it regenerates it; if the nerves are tremulous and weak, it braces and reinforces them; if the mind, which ever sympathizes with the body, is gloomy and despondent, it relieves the difficulty, and soon brings the whole mechanism of the body into harmony with the laws of health.

There is no civilized nation in the Western Hemisphere in which the utility of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a tonic, corrective and anti-billious medicine, is not known and appreciated. Throughout the Tropics it is considered, both by the people and the profession, the standard specific. While it is a medicine for all seasons and climates, it is especially suited to the complaints generated by the weather, being the purest and best vegetable stimulant in the world.

Beware of the Bitters made of acid and dangerous materials, which unscrupulous parties are endeavoring to foist upon the people. Their name is legion, and the public has no guarantee that they are not poisonous. Adhere to the tried remedy, Hostetter's Bitters, sold only in glass, and never in kegs and barrels.

THE GREAT HAIR PRODUCER.—Hair Oils, Pomatums and Pomades have had their day. They belong to the musty past. Nobody that understands the chemistry of the hair and the philosophy of its growth thinks of using them. Instead of clogging the pores of the scalp with thick unguents, and thus obstructing the insensible perspiration which is essential to the health of the fibres, we now tone the surface of the head with an invigorating application which penetrates to the roots of the hair and stimulates them in the same way that the fertilizing agents spread over the meadows stimulate the grass roots and cause the blades to spring up in myriads, coating the earth with verdure. The invigorant best adapted to this purpose is LYON'S KATHAIRON. It may well be called the fertilizer of the head. To the barren scalp it communicates vegetative power. If the hair is dropping out or becoming dry and withered, it arrests the process of dilapidation or blight. The hair thickens and becomes glossy and flexible under its genial operation, and as a dressing it is unapproached by any preparation that has yet been laid on the toilet of Fashion.

☞ If you desire rosey cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples and Blotches, purify your blood by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose.

UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS.—Within the past year 209,000 boxes of DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS have been sold and not a single instance is known where they have failed to give satisfaction. If you would enjoy life, have a fine appetite and robust health, use these Pills.

Dr. W. H. Tutt:

AUGUSTA, November, 1870.

It affords me much pleasure to testify to the great value of your Liver Pills. They are all they are represented to be. In my opinion, there are no Pills so well adapted to the Southern climate as they are.
Yours truly,
JOS. BRUMMEL, late of Richmond, Va.

The Barbers Prefer Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye.

A WHOLE PEOPLE'S OPINION.—When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a STANDARD RESTORATIVE an article that it has had the fullest opportunities of testing during a period of twelve years, who can be so absurdly incredulous as to doubt the excellence of the preparation? PLANTATION BITTERS has passed through this ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this continent. It would be difficult to find an adult of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific or between the northern corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this renowned vegetable remedy is the purest tonic and stomachic and the finest alterative and regulating medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of, and cure for diseases generated by malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheumatism and all nervous and billous affections, it is admitted to be fairly pronounced the Favorite Household Tonic and Alterative of the Western Hemisphere.

A NEW BEAUTIFYING AGENT.—All Dentifrices had their drawbacks, until the Salubrious Bark of the Soap Tree was brought from the Chilian Valleys to perfect the fragrant Sozodont, the most delightful article for the teeth that a brush was ever dipped into.

"CHILDREN'S LIVES SAVED FOR 50 CENTS.—Every case of Croup can be cured when first taken, by Dr. Tobias' Venetian Liniment, warranted for 24 years, and never a bottle returned. It also cures Diarrhea, Dysentery, Colic, Sore throat, Cuts, Burns, and External Pains. Sold by the Druggists. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

VENUS herself would not have been beautiful if her complexion had been bad. Beauty is skin deep, it is necessary to secure and retain that part of it; and ladies, instead of resorting to paints and powders, should remember that an impure, blotchy or sallow skin is the proof of feeble digestion, torp'd liver, or vitiated blood, for all which Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters is a safe, sure and effectual remedy.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE.—No oils, neither pomades or alchoholic washes—foreign or domestic—can compare with Cocoaine as a hair Dressing. It anchors the hair firmly in the scalp—gives it new life and lustre—and renders it the "crowning glory" of both sexes, young and old.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL.—More accidents occur from using unsafe oils, than from steamboats and railroads combined. Over 200,000 families continue to burn Pratt's Astral Oil, and no accidents directly or indirectly have occurred from burning, storing or handling it. Old house of Chas. Pratt. Established 1770, New York.

A BEAUTIFUL WHITE, soft, smooth and clear skin is produced by using G. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." It removes tan, freckles, sun, and all other discolorations from the skin, leaving the complexion brilliant and beautiful. Sold at all druggists. This preparation is entirely free from any material detrimental to health.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also, as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers. The Perro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal.

RISLEY'S GENUINE GOLDEN BELL COLOGNE WATER according to the original formula of Prevost, Paris, so long and favorably known to the customers of Haviland, Harral and Risley and their branches, is its permanent fragrance is now made by H. W. Risley and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, Wholesale Druggists, New York.

THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER.—The best article known for cleansing and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

CARBOLIC SALVE unequalled as a Healing Compound. Physicians recommend it as the most wonderful remedy ever known. Price 25 cents per box. John F. Henry, Sole Proprietor, 8 College Place, New York.

CHRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE.—This magnificent compound is beyond contingency the safest and most reliable Dye in existence; never failing to impart to the Hair uniformity of color, nourishment and elasticity. Manufactury, 68 Maiden Lane, New York

SVAPNIA is Opium purified of its sickening and poisonous qualities. It is a perfect anodyne not producing headache or constipation of bowels, as is the case with other preparations of opium. John Farr, Chemist, New York.

☞ KOSKOO.—This celebrated Medicine has attained a high reputation, as a reliable remedy for Purifying the Blood, Restoring the Liver and Kidneys to a healthy action and "Toning up" the Nervous System. In numerous and remarkable cures of the worst forms of Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Kidney Disease, Eruptions

Horrible Death.

About half past 10 o'clock yesterday, a young man named Edward Cloutier, engaged in varnishing furniture on the the third floor of No. 34, Atwater street, met with a horrible death. The young man has had a great passion for gymnastics, expecting to attach himself to a circus as soon as he became proficient. While working around the building he has used all his spare moments in swinging from beams, turning handsprings, and performing other feats calling for supleness and activity. He was seen clinging to the main shaft of the 200 horse power engine a few days ago, and was warned by his employer never to attempt the feat again. The shaft runs along within thirty inches of the floor, and makes about one hundred and fifty revolutions per minute. In the morning yesterday, after finishing up a table, Cloutier went to the north end of the building and prepared himself to perform some feat which he had studied up. Taking the tackle rope which is used to hoist articles from the alley below, he passed the free end over the shaft. This much was ascertained after his death, but his further proceedings will never be known. A boy was working forty feet away, and was first alarmed by hearing Cloutier call out, "Stop the engine quick!" Running around, the boy saw that he was caught in the folds of the rope and wound over the shaft. The boy ran, as did others, but it was two or three minutes before the engine could be stopped and then the victim was past help. As soon as the rope lashed him to the shaft the young man had to turn with it. One of his arms was caught round the shaft so that it drew his face and shoulder close down but left his limbs free to pound on the flour. The noise of his feet striking the boards was heard half a block away above the hum of the machinery. His boots heels tore a strip off one of the boards, and were then flung from his feet clear across the room. His hat went the other way, and his pants were stripped off and thrown 15 feet away. After the boots flew off the young man's bare feet whipped the floor three or four hundred times. The feet were mashed up to the ankles so that they spread out like brooms, and looked like pieces of bloody beef. The bones of the ankles struck the floor until dents half an inch deep were made in the boards. After the tackle rope had been wound its full length it had to snap, but this did not let the victim loose. After the engine stopped Cloutier had to be cut loose from the shaft. He gave a gasp as they released him, but died as they laid him down. One of his arms was broken half a dozen times, and, indeed, there was hardly a whole bone in his body, His legs were mere pulps, his breast crushed in, his ribs broken, fingers broken, back and neck broken, and a worse sight never was seen. The floor was covered with blood and flesh, and the strongest men shuddered as they looked. Coroner Grau was called and a jury was empanelled, and a verdict rendered on the spot. The verdict was to the effect that the deceased came to his death while trying an experiment with a rope around a a shaft making 135 revolutions per minute. The verdict was thus worded to make plainer the fact that the young man's recklessness brought about the accident.—Detroit Free Press, July 26.

Mosby and Withers—Origin and End of the Difficulty.

A Washington correspondent of the New York Herald gives the following concerning the difficulty between Col. Mosby and Dr. Withers, at Warrenton, Va., and its origin:

It is stated that ever since Mosby resolved to support Grant as the lesser of two evils, he has been overbearing and disposed to question the sanity of those who favored the election of Greeley.—Dr. Withers, who has been mayor of Warrenton, and who enjoys the esteem of a large circle of friends, was one of the first to avow himself in favor of Mr. Greeley's election.

On Saturday last it is reported that a gentleman at the Warrenton Hotel playfully remarked that the Conservative party would not send its trained speakers to Salem to answer Col. Mosby, but would send a novice in such matters, referring to Dr. Withers. This remark was communicated to Col. Mosby, and construing it into contemplated affront, he in his heat made it known that he would denounce Withers and those who sent him if he put in an appearance.—Withers heard of this after the speaking was over at Salem, while a meeting was in progress at Warrenton to celebrate the reported victory in North Carolina, and on being called on for a speech, referred in general terms to his readiness to meet Col. Mosby on any field.

The well known character of both parties for playing with the trigger, made the timid judge at Warrenton very nervous. He passed a restless night Saturday, and on Sunday came to the conclusion that Colonel Mosby and Dr. Withers contemplated a duel. Both parties were arrested and bound over to keep the peace until the personal friends of both had an opportunity of probing the origin of the misunderstanding. It was believed that the affair would be settled.

By way of atoning for his political errors, Mosby says he will stump it for Grant until the Louisville Convention nominates a straight out Democratic ticket. After that he expects to find expletives enough to denounce both Greeley and Grant.

STRANGE CASE OF HYDROPHOBIA.—A gentleman of our acquaintance vouches for the following story: About thirty years ago there resided in the lower portion of this State a colored family, consisting of a mother and six children. They were all bitten by a rabid dog, three of the children dying with hydrophobia, the others recovering. The subject of this notice was at the time of the accident about ten years of age, a healthy, well-developed girl. Her side and arm were badly lacerated, and the wounds were slow in healing. No sooner, however, had the parts healed than she was seized with periodic paroxysms of catalepsy, which paroxysms lasted from half to one hour's duration. These spells seized her about twice a month, and were ushered in by no premonitions of an attack, and wherever she was she would fall to the ground, double herself up like a hoop, the limbs become stiff and rigid, and for twenty minutes would bark like a dog. She so closely mimics this animal that it is impossible for a stranger who hears her to distinguish her bark from that of a dog. She has had these spells regularly up to the present time. She is one of the most humble and inoffensive women, showing no disposition to injure any one during or in the absence of these spells. She has been a married woman, and has several children and grandchildren. She has been a resident of this city for a number of years, and at present is with a family residing on Portland avenue.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

For West Virginia, Messrs. Alfred Phillips, Union, Monroe county; W. M. Welch, New Creek, Mineral county, are appointed.

THE CHOLERA IN JAPAN.—The last steamer which arrived at San Francisco from Japan brought intelligence of the occurrence of cholera in Jeddo, which has proved signally fatal. With the disease in Germany, it would now seem that we are between two fires, and under double necessity to be prepared for emergency.

THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE

FOR SALE.

By virtue of a judgment rendered at Spring Term, 1872, of the Superior Court of Wake County, in the action entitled William R. Pool, Executor of Edward Yarborough, dec'd, vs. Hannah H. Yarborough and others, the heirs and devisees of the said descendent, I will on expose to public sale, on the premises, the valuable property known as the Yarborough Hotel.

The 31st Day of August Next,

This property is situated on the Eastern side of Fayetteville Street, in the city of Raleigh, and embraces about one acre of ground—it is one of the most central points in the city, being not more than four hundred yards distant from the Depots of the Raleigh & Gaston, the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line, and the North Carolina Railroads; within one hundred yards of the proposed Masonic Temple; the same distance from the Post-office and Federal Court House; on the opposite side of the street from the Wake County Court House, and within five minutes walk of the Capital.

The hotel building is three stories high and contains forty-seven guest chambers, a dining room, two parlors, a reception room, office and three family rooms. The rooms are commodious and well ventilated; the passages are broad and spacious; the dining room, parlors and office are large, well lighted and comfortable, both in summer and winter.

All the buildings on the premises are in excellent order, and afford every convenience to hotel keeping.

The terms are as follows: One-fourth of the purchase money in cash; the residue in three equal instalments, bearing interest, at six, twelve and eighteen months from the day of sale; the first of the credit instalments to be secured by bond with at least one good surety, title withheld until payment of the purchase money; and so long as any part of the purchase money remains unpaid, the purchaser to insure the buildings on said lot, in a sum equal to such unpaid balance, the loss, if any, to be applied to the payment of said purchase money; and should the purchaser fail so to insure the said buildings, I shall have the power to effect such insurance and the money so expended by me to be deemed a part of the purchase money, bearing interest from date of expenditure, and be payable at the same time with the instalment of purchase money next thereafter falling due.

WILLIAM R. POOL, Ex. of Edward Yarborough, dec'd.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE

IN THE

COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shocco Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs, Tract of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing Town of Ridgeway, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Overseer's house, three cabins, corn-crib and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (¼) of the tract is in original growth of oak, hickory, &c., one-fifth in second growth pines. The soil is sandy, loam and chocolate—surface undulating—well watered, and about 80 acres of rich bottom land. It yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th, ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of tuousands of Dollars in Life Premeums are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

GREELEY.

BY HENRIETTA WELLINGTON BOATE.

[The following ode to our future President which might be termed a "campaign lyric" is from the pen of a lady, whose effusions have from time to time graced the "Evening Post," "The Sunday Star," "The Sunday News" and other journals. The truthfulness of the sentiment gives it a public interest at the present crisis.]

Honest Greeley wears no mask,
He is suited for the times.
Ring out ye merry chimes
And hail the happy hour
That brings Greeley into power.
No charlatan is he—
No sot, or dribbling fool;
But an honor to the choice
Of wisdom's peopled voice.
No knave can make HIM a tool
To burden with misrule;
Columbia, star of earth,
The country of his birth—
For his heart where kindness flows,
Knows well the people's woes.
When valer of the State
He'll make the nation great,
And aching hearts oppressed
With justice shall be blessed.

There are journals imbecile,
That would tramp with iron heel
On each poor man's holy right,
And with libel would indite
The just, the pure, the good,
Who with faith would nobly stand
For the rights of Fatherland;
And for Greeley now would wake
The banner of the brake
And unsullied keep it free
With its stars of Liberty.

But away from honor's track
With the hirelings who would back
The worthless, knavish wight
Who turns sunshine into night.
May Heaven stand between
Their ire and jaundiced spleen,
That fain would lead astray,
The weak hearts of the day,
But a nation's boasted pride
Our President shall be.
For every honest man
Shall lead Greeley to the van.
Then hurrah with giant voice—
"Horace Greeley is our choice."
And while treading triumph's route
"Vox Populi, Vox Dei," be the shout.
